Faith Moriah Mundua

Independent Researcher, Writer & Analyst

Digital Rights · Media Freedom · Governance · Social Inclusion

Based in Norway | From Uganda | faith.mundua@gmail.com | linkedin.com/in/faith-m-mundua-5b5b25b2 | rightsandrealities.com

PROFILE

Ugandan researcher, writer and communications professional based in Norway. Research interests include digital rights and governance, media freedom, misinformation and disinformation, information integrity, immigration, welfare systems and social inclusion. Through her independent platform, Rights & Realities, she explores how policies, institutions and digital systems affect people's rights and everyday lives, particularly in African contexts and Norway.

EDUCATION

MA in Global Journalism

NLA University College, Norway

MA in Strategic Communications

Uganda Christian University, Uganda

EXPERIENCE

Founder & Editor — Rights & Realities

Independent research, writing and analysis platform

Leads independent research, writing and editorial work on digital rights, governance, media freedom, information integrity, immigration, welfare and social inclusion.

Board Member — Digital Rights Frontlines

Board membership

Personal views and independent work are kept distinct from the organisation’s official positions.

KEY SKILLS

- Research and critical analysis
- Journalism and media analysis
- Information integrity and misinformation analysis
- Academic and analytical writing
- Digital rights and internet governance
- Strategic communications
- Policy analysis and human rights
- Public communication

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Digital rights and internet governance in Africa · Media freedom and freedom of expression · Misinformation, disinformation and information integrity · Media and information literacy · Immigration, welfare and social inclusion in Norway · Access to public services and information